

WOOLWORTHS BRINGS JOY FOR RED CROSS WAR MEMORIAL CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL PATIENTS

Easter came earlier for patients at Red Cross War Memorial Children's Hospital due to donation of Easter Eggs from Woolworths. On Monday the 25th March 2013 patients from Trauma and Burns wards were presented with Easter Eggs. Many of these children were recovering from surgery and spent their Easter weekend at the hospital.

A patient at Trauma Unit receiving his Easter Egg, Standing is his mother and Sr Johnson

Childsafe Team and Sr. Johnson of TraumaUnit

Childsafe South Africa, an NGO at Red Cross War Memorial Hospital received the donation of Easter Eggs and distributed them to children in the respective wards of the hospital. It was heart-warming to see the smiles on children's faces who received the donation.

Sr. Goosen handing Easter Egg to a mother at Burns Unit

On behalf of the Red Cross War Memorial Children's Hospital, Childsafe South Africa wishes to thank Woolworths for this generous donation. This donation definitely brought sweet memories and kept patients strong during this important time spent away from their families.