1. INTRODUCTION

ChildSafe SA is an registered Non-Profit Organisation registered as ChildSafe SA.

The foundation operates in the area of Southern Africa, but will focus on activities within South Africa.

Vision:

To create a safer world for children.

Mission:

- To promote the child's right to safety through research, education and environmental change and recommendations for legislation.
- To be a recognised source for national research data on child accidents and injuries.
- To be recognised as a national point of reference and a provider of child safety information.
- To work in close cooperation with government, the corporate and business sectors, industry, NGO's, academic and other educational institutions and societal communities.

The Head Office:

The Head Office of the foundation is situated on the premises of the Red Cross War Memorial Children's Hospital, Klipfontein Road, Rondebosch, Cape Town or such other address as the Executive Committee may determine from time to time.

Interventions to achieve the objectives will include inter alia:

As accidents involving children under the age of 18 can be prevented to a large extent, and such prevention requires co-operations between many disciplines and professions as well as close liaison with the community, the foundation will endeavour, given its capacity and resource constraints, to achieve its main objectives:

It will include:

- Scientific research based on the analysis of local statistics of the extent, causes, patterns and results of injuries and accidents involving children under 18 years;
- Calculated preventative programmes based on local research findings; develop and implement injury prevention measures;
- Education and promotion of public awareness; about child safety and injury prevention;
- Consulting with representatives of the community;
- Serving as a resource centre to the communities, providing meaningful information and resources regarding childhood injuries and their prevention;
- Increasing levels of participation in all sectors of the community (government and private organisations) to develop and implement injury prevention measures; and
- To lobby and motivate for standards and legislation regarding children's products and safer environments. The encouragement of legislation to promote the safety of children.

2. THE ACT

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No 2 of 2000 ("The Act" or "PAIA") was enacted on 3 February 2000, giving effect to the right of access to any information held by Government, as well as any information held by another person who is required for the exercising or protection of any rights. This right is entrenched in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution of South Africa. Where a request is made in terms of The Act, the body to which the request is made is not obliged to release the information, except where The Act expressly provides that the information may or must be released. The Act sets out the requisite procedural issues attached to such request.

3. PURPOSE OF THE MANUAL

In order to promote effective governance of private bodies, it is necessary to ensure that everyone is empowered and educated to understand their rights in terms of The Act in order for them to exercise their rights in relation to public and private bodies.

Section 9 of The Act, however, recognizes that such right to access to information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:

- Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
- Commercial confidentiality; and
- Effective, efficient and good governance

And in a manner that balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

This PAIA Manual assist you to-

- 3.1 check the categories of records held by ChildSafe SA which are available without a person having to submit a formal PAIA request;
- 3.2 have a sufficient understanding of how to make a request for access to a record of ChildSafe SA, by providing a description of the subjects on which ChildSafe SA holds records and the categories of records held on each subject;
- 3.3 know the description of the records of ChildSafe SA which are available in accordance with any other legislation;
- 3.4 access all the relevant contact details of the Information Officer and Deputy Information Officer(s) who will assist you with the records you intend to access;
- 3.5 know the description of the guide on how to use PAIA, as updated by the Information Regulator, and how to obtain access to it;
- 3.6 know if ChildSafe SA processes personal information and the purpose of processing of personal information;
- 3.7 know the description of the categories of data subjects and the information or categories of information relating thereto;
- 3.8 know the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied;
- 3.9 know if ChildSafe SA plans to transfer or process personal information outside the Republic of South Africa and the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied; and

3.10 know whether ChildSafe SA has appropriate security measures to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the personal information which is to be processed.

10. REQUEST PROCEDURE FOR OBTAINING INFORMATION

Access to records held by ChildSafe SA

Records held by ChildSafe SA may be accessed by request only once the prerequisites for access have been met.

The requester must fulfil the prerequisites for access in terms of The Act, including the payment of a requested access fee.

The requester must comply with all the procedural requirements contained in The Act relating to the request for access to a record.

The requester must complete the prescribed Form 2 (Annexure B) and submit same as well as payment of a request fee and a deposit, if applicable, to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address, fax number or electronic mail address as stated herein.

The prescribed form must be filled in with enough particulars to at least enable the Information Officer to identify –

- The record or records requested;
- The identity of the requester,
- Which form of access is required, if the request is granted;
- The postal address or fax number or email address of the requester.

The requester must state that they require the information in order to exercise or protect a right, and clearly state what the nature of the right to be exercised or protected is. In addition, the requester must clearly specify why the record is necessary to exercise or protect such a right.

ChildSafe SA will process the request within 30 days, unless the requester has stated a special reason that would satisfy the Information Officer that circumstances dictate that the above time periods are not complied with.

The requester shall be informed whether access has been granted or denied in the form of Form 3 (Annexure C). If, in addition, the requester requires the reason for the decision in any other manner, they must state the manner and the particulars so required.

If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request, to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer.

If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed Form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally.

11. FEES

When the Information Officer receives the request, such Officer shall, by notice, require the requester to pay the prescribed request fee (if any), before any further processing of the request.

If the search for the record has been made in the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangements to make it available in the requested form, and it requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulation for this purpose, the Information Officer shall notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.

The Information Officer shall withhold a record until the requester has paid the Fees as indicated.

A requester, whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure, including making arrangements to make it available in the requested form.

If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Information Officer concerned must repay the deposit to the requester.

The fees applicable to a request for information are set out in Annexure A hereto.

The requester must pay the prescribed fee before any further processing can take place.

12. GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION

The main grounds for ChildSafe SA to refuse a request for information relates to the:

- Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party that is a natural person that would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person;
- Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains:
 - o Trade secrets of that third party;
 - o Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information, disclosure of which could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party;
 - o Information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the Private Body, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
- Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement;
- Mandatory protection of confidential information of the protection of property;
- Mandatory protection of records that would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;
- The commercial activities of ChildSafe SA
- operating as ChildSafe SA which may include:
 - o Trade secrets of ChildSafe SA
 - o operating as ChildSafe SA
 - o Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information, disclosure which could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interest of ChildSafe SA
 - o operating as ChildSafe SA ;
 - o Information which, if disclosed could put ChildSafe SA
 - o operating as ChildSafe SA at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
 - o A computer program, owned by ChildSafe SA
 - o operating as ChildSafe SA and protected by copyright.

- The research information of ChildSafe SA
- operating as ChildSafe SA or a third party, if its disclosure would reveal the identity of ChildSafe SA
- operating as ChildSafe SA, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage;

Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which would involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.

13. DECISION

ChildSafe SA will within 30 days of receipt of the request, decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect.

The requester shall be informed whether access has been granted or denied in the form of Form 3 (Annexure C). If, in addition, the requester requires the reason for the decision in any other manner, they must state the manner and the particulars so required.

The 30 day period within which ChildSafe SA has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for further period of not more than 30 days if the request is for a large amount of information, or the request requires a search for information held at another office of ChildSafe SA and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30 day period. ChildSafe SA will notify the requester in writing should an extension be sought.
